

NICE Actimize Receives 2022 “Best Technology Management Team North America” Award from Global Banking and Finance Review

The award highlights the NICE Actimize technology management team’s leadership in digital innovation and its financial crime market sector expertise

Hoboken, N.J., March 1, 2022 – NICE Actimize, a NICE (NASDAQ: NICE) business, today announced that Global Banking and Finance Review, a financial media platform with over three million readers worldwide, has awarded the company the “Best Technology Management Team, North America” award for 2022. The management team award is the seventh honor received by NICE Actimize from Global Banking & Finance Review for 2022, joining its “Best-Anti-Fraud/Security Solutions” and “Excellence in Innovation” awards for the Asia Pacific, Europe and North American regions.

Driving digital innovation and leveraging its decades of financial crime expertise, NICE Actimize’s technology management team of cloud developers, artificial intelligence experts, and data scientists, launched multiple new financial crime solutions this past year, addressed such product trends as advanced sanctions screening, dark web intelligence, entity risk solutions, conduct surveillance, and new account fraud offerings, among just a few signature solution categories. Further integrating its recent company acquisitions into the NICE Actimize family, NICE Actimize’s technology management team led the continued success of two financial crime platforms, X-Sight and Xceed, addressing the challenges of top-tier traditional banks and mid-tier financial institutions, along with a focus on neobanks, crypto firms, and more.

Explains Wanda Rich, Editor, Global Banking and Finance Review, “Our judges and editorial team congratulate NICE Actimize’s technology management team for its outstanding contributions to fighting financial crime and its successful expansion into new markets by addressing the growing demand for cloud-focused solutions, and in forging digital innovation across the full scope of anti-money laundering, enterprise fraud, holistic conduct surveillance, and case management. We are honored to acknowledge NICE Actimize and its technology management team as this year’s winners of our Best Technology Management Team, North America, award.”

Notes Craig Costigan, CEO, NICE Actimize, “We are honored that Global Banking and Finance Review distinguishes our world-class technology management team and its numerous contributions to providing innovative financial crime and compliance solutions that meet the challenges of our customers. We will continue to offer innovation and advanced technologies in artificial intelligence, machine learning, and high performing cloud-based solutions that take our customers into the digital future.”

NICE Actimize combines deep industry expertise and a patented technology platform to quickly enable global businesses to increase their insight into real-time customer behavior and improve risk and compliance performance. NICE Actimize provides enterprise risk management solutions to banks, insurance companies, payment companies, and government entities around the world.
